

Great Little Box Company Continues to Grow

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 10, 2010, Richmond, BC: Great Little Box Company (GLBC) has done it again; on September 10, 2010 GLBC acquired the assets of Action Box Company. Since 2009, GLBC has acquired 4 companies, adding and expanding to their portfolio of product offering. With a facility over 250,000 sq ft located on Mitchell Island, GLBC is continuing to be an industry leader with their one-stop-shop packaging solutions, now there's nothing 'little' about Great Little Box Company.

With this most recent acquisition, Great Little Box Company is now positioned as the premier protective packaging solutions provider in British Columbia. Teamed with GLBC, Action Box Company customers can now enjoy a greater range of products and continued gold standard of service. GLBC can strengthen its commitment to being a packaging industry leader and the two companies together have a great synergy that fits perfectly together for the product mix and total customer satisfaction focus.

GLBC is best at providing the solutions that our customers are looking for. With all the resources and pieces of the packaging puzzle at their disposal, a customer does not need to look any further than one trip to GLBC. With in-house designers and a wide product range including corrugated boxes, labels, folding cartons, displays and protective packaging we can develop a complete program.

About Great Little Box Company

Great Little Box Company is a dynamic BC based manufacturer of boxes, foam, folding cartons, labels and additional packaging components. Founded in 1982 by husband and wife team, Robert and Margaret Meggy, the company is widely recognized for its progressive human resource practices and successful management track record. For more information, visit www.greatlittlebox.com